

SUNDAY SCHOOL TAKE HOME PAGE

To parents:

This page lets you know what your child learned in Sunday school today. In addition, you will find this week's memory verse, a suggested activity, and a short prayer to reinforce the lesson. Being involved and interacting with your child can be very rewarding for both of you.

What we learned:

Today, in our third lesson on the parable of the sower, we learned that many people hear the Good News, which is the gift of salvation, but they are more worried about their day to day activities. They spent a lot of time trying to get more money. They think that the more money they have, the happier they'll be. Sadly this just isn't true. People can only be truly happy when they have a genuine relationship with God, through His one and only Son, Jesus Christ. (Scripture used: Matthew 13:7, 22)

Memory Verse:

"No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon." Matthew 6:24 KJV

Practice this verse several times with your child during the week. Write the verse out on a sheet of paper, leaving several key words out. Ask your child to fill in the missing words. Show your child how to look the passage up in the Bible, using the name of the book, the chapter and the verse.

Suggested Parent/Child Activity:

After dinner each night this week, discuss how each member of the family spent time with God during the day. It's easy to let other unimportant things come between us and our time with God. Discuss ways in which each family member can keep this from happening. Spend time as a family interacting with God. A great resource to accomplish this is Family Night Tool Chest Series by Widemann & Bruner which is published by Heritage Builders.

Daily Prayer:

Dear Lord, please help us keep our life priorities in the proper perspective. Let us keep our focus on You and the words of life we find in the Bible. May our hearts long to become closer to You. Keep us from letting earthly pursuits come between us and our relationship with You. Help us use the gifts You have given us to honor You. In the name of Jesus, amen.
