

MAN NAMED NOAH

Come listen to a story about a man named Noah,
Lived at a time no one ever had a cola.
In fact everybody acted rotten all the time,
Even though they were blessed with lots of sunshine.

Then one day, A voice, A deep voice:

Listen to me, Noah, this is what you are to do,
Build a big boat and load it two by two.
Believe it or not the sky is going to pour.
When it does, don't forget I'll tightly shut the door.
And the rain came, for forty days, and nights.
Drip, drip.
